Stefan Everts to be Honored at USGP

San Bernardino, Calif. - May 13, 2011: The Legends and Heroes of Motocross Tour has chosen Belgian motocross legend Stefan Everts as the latest recipient of their Legends and Heroes Award. The 10 time World Motocross Champion will be accepting the award in a special podium ceremony to be held at 2:20pm between motos at the 2011 Monster Energy Grand Prix of the United States at Glen Helen Raceway.

The son of 4 time motocross world champion Harry Everts, Stefan got into motorcycling at a early age. Stefan took his first 125cc title at the age of 19, and went on to become the youngest World Champion in history in 1991. By the time he retired at the end of the 2006 season Everts had accumulated a record 10 World Motocross Championship titles, and 101 GP race wins.

The Legends and Heroes of Motocross Tour is a traveling museum display that was developed by a small group of dedicated motocross enthusiasts to preserve the history of the sport. Previous winners of the Legends and Heroes of Motocross Award include motocross legends like Broc Glover, David and Gary Bailey, Danny LaPorte and Mike LaRocco.

The tour will travel to MX races throughout the 2011 season, honoring the legacy of these and other motocross greats.

About the Tour

The Legends & Heroes Motocross Tour is a professional historical display and time-line of Americas greatest motorsport.

The tour includes the machines and the champs of Motocross. The project was conceived by a dedicated group of Motocross Enthusiasts who, over the years, have discovered the value of the rich 40+ years of Motocross legacy and its impact on the American motorsports history. "The dedication and passion of the sport has brought the Legends & Heroes Motocross Tour to the next level of sharing this legacy, the history of the machines and men, as well as the women of Motocross. The history of the Classic Iron and its' champions is a dynamic model ever changing. We see this rich history as a great learning lab for all ages" according to Alex Moroz the tours managing partner.
